Curriculum

ECDC's Curricular Philosophy:

- Learning is a social endeavor, an exchange of ideas that results in deeper conceptual understanding.
- Foundational skills and achievable challenges create the stepping stones to future learning.
- Learning strategies must be developmentally appropriate, individualized, and personally meaningful.

- A positive and secure environment opens the door to active exploration which is essential to foundational learning.

ECDC has chosen to utilize eight nationally recognized curricula which present balance, diverse teaching methods and strategies, family involvement, and foundational skills.
